The Times.

Office—Temple, Main and New High.

Santa Barbara talks business.

It will be swift by a large majority.

STROMBERG has again put his foot in the "Paw."

"I wish some one would go and kill that fool Express for me. If it would quit booming me, I might stand some show."—(Walter Scott Moore.)

The man who has brains and dares to use them is the coming man in this country. He holds the balance of power to-day in this country.

It is there is a solid and solid truth, it is that the only way to carry Los Angeles county by putting up good men. To elevate scrub to be knocked down with them.

The Santa Cruz Sentinel, owned and edited by Duncan McPherson, the owner of the Ancient Order of United Workmen in this State, is out flat-footed against Walter S. Moore.

The Express wants the Times boycotted. That is right. The gentleman who packed a cannon, and did not feel strong in the part of boycotters. Let them trot out their boycott.

When the Express labors to be humored, it might dig up something funnier than the story that it has about the Times up on the Moore or any other question. The Times fancies that its position as to bosses and unit candidates is tolerably well understood now. It will "stay with" that position. If the Express is still obtuse, it might try being tripped.

The Pasadena Star, which does not seem to know very well what it does want, demands that Walter S. Moore shall deprive the charges made against him by the Times, or do something else. The Star is requested to twinkle to the fact that the courts are open to Mr. Moore, in case these damaging charges are libels. Does he seek vindication? Hardly!

There is a good deal of rot disseminated about the infidelity of Republican conventions. It is doddling idiosyncrasy to suppose that a gathering even of Republicans cannot make a mistake, being ignorant of the premises. And it is worse than foolish to saddle upon Republicanism the responsibility of nomination effected by Bill Higgins, the boss; Henry Vrooman, the railroad wire-puller, and Harry Rhodes, the gambler of Sacramento, and consequent political master of that odorous burg.

There is one minor error in the disposal of the coming convention which has been somewhat slightly by reason of its comparative unimportance. It is not, however, too small to have some claims upon the consideration of intelligent voters. The office of coroner is important. It has some rights which are bound to respect. In the first place, a coroner is needed who resides directly in the town. The long-range service we have had would not be tolerated in any other progressive city. In the second place, a man of at least ordinary intelligence should be selected, who will be able to make out a simple and clear difference between the San Francisco touching the head of the ticket) will be harmonized or swept away, and losses from default more than made up by accessions from the ranks of that class of Republicans and independent citizens who are not generally persons, and who come out in the "off years" only when their judgment and patriotism are appealed to by the presentation of a first-class man at the head of the ticket.

In the south the outlook is also good. General Vandever, our nominee for Congress in 1892, is now in Los Angeles, ready to commence the campaign in his wide-extending district. He will speak here within a few days, and will certainly have a very large meeting, for his nomination is highly acceptable to our people, being universally recognized as a signally judicious and strong one. He will nobly and bravely bear the Republican banner high aloft, and will win.

AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—The second performance of "The Children of Normandy" was given by the Opera Company last night. This evening, "The Children of Normandy" is underlined.

DUFF OPERA COMPANY.—The statement which was circulated to the effect that the Duff Opera Company had been engaged for a season at the Grand Opera House, according to last accounts, to be incorrect. The company demanded a "guarantee" and the refusal of the proprietor of the Opera House to give it, has, it is surmised, been the cause of the negotiation falling through.

More Goodies.—William P. Crawford and H. H. Bond are out in the Democratic field running for the nomination for Township Justice. Thomas J. Bedford thinks he would make a nomination. Democratic constant; and Elijah Workman has a long way to represent the undersized as County Treasurer.

The Wilson-Park Mass.—Charles Wilson, a veteran prospector of Arizona, is busy in the neighborhood of Wilson's park. So far, his partner, Charles Wilson, who is in the city now, reports that they have no gold claim, but much about nothing.

SANTA BARBARA, Sept. 15.—The Republican County Convention, in session here to-day, unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That we recommend that the charges made against Walter S. Moore, of Los Angeles, the nominee of the Republican State Convention for Secretary of State, be investigated by the Republican State Central Committee, and if it is found that said charges are true, that the same be referred to the State Committee, and that the name of the said person be substituted therefor."

THE FARMERS' CONVENTION.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 15.—The Farmers' Convention, in session here to-day, discussed the political situation met at Grangers' Hall this afternoon. Representatives of twelve or fifteen counties were present. Some delegates favor selecting a ticket from the Republican, Democratic and Prohibitionist nominees. Others favor the nomination of a ticket of their own. Journeys on Credentials, Resolutions, four resolutions and the convention adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. Judge Blackwood, of Alameda, presided over the convention.

SAN FRANCISCO.

MURDER OF JULIUS A. CHAMBERLAIN'S CRIME—AT CHARLOTTE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—The mystery surrounding the death of Edward Higgins, the young man who was found dead in a rooming house, is being cleared up. It is believed that the man who was found dead in the rooming house, is the same man who was found dead in the rooming house.

THE PASADENA STAR, which does not seem to know very well what it does want, demands that Walter S. Moore shall deprive the charges made against him by the Times, or do something else. MILK'S CAMPAIGN.

A New Mexican Paper on the Apache.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 15.—The Democrat, to-morrow, will say, editorially:

"The recent reports circulated, concerning the surrender of the Apaches, and detracting from the merits of the campaign, have elicited considerable indignation among military men in this section, who feel that it is but an effort to deprive the gallant officers and soldiers of the fruits of their victory, and believe that they are inspired by envious critics. People in this community who know all the facts appreciate the great final success of Miles' campaign as much as they have deplored the past futile efforts of others to secure a lasting peace. Those who know say that Geronimo and his band were never captured or dispersed until Miles landed last week at Fort Bowie as prisoner of war, and the statement that Geronimo would have surrendered upon conditions before the recent change in military commanders in this department is true, as also it is that the Indians escaped after being captured and turned over to the civil authorities by General Crook. Military men say that Miles' campaign was a necessary step for the Apache trouble to a successful termination. His vigorous campaign lasted only four months, and Geronimo only gave up when he was surrounded by troops in the field, and Gen. Miles simply told him that any officers who would kill their prisoners of war, they must lay down their arms and do what he said, trusting their future to the President."

Fourth race, free-for-all, running pace of $300, for all ages, one mile; eight starters: Laura Gardner, first; Last Lash, second. Time, 1:43.

A BOMBING CONSPIRACY.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 15.—Governor Stoneman has commuted the sentence of a man who was convicted of a bombing conspiracy in Los Angeles in February, 1894, and sentenced to seven years, to three years. The Prison Director recommended the commutation on the ground that the ends of justice had been subserved.

A SCHOONER'S NARROW ESCAPE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—The schooner, Elia Miller, which was ashore at Huemul, last week, with a cargo of barley, arrived in port, to-day, after a long and eventful voyage. The vessel is not damaged to any considerable extent, and the principal loss is on the cargo. It was necessary to burn about 1,200 sacks of grain on board, in order to save the ship. Part of the cargo is lost, and the rest is damaged. The loss is about $1,500, fully covered by insurance.

MEXICAN MARAUDERS.

THE CASE OF THE REPORTED APACHE RAIDERS Near Paso del Norte.

EL PASO, TEX., Sept. 15.—Reports were circulated to-day that hostile Apaches were reported to have been seen in the vicinity of the town of El Paso, Texas, and that they were in the habit of robbing the trains. The reports are false in every particular. They were caused by outrages committed by a band of Mexican bandits, who were in the habit of robbing the trains. A few days ago a ranch house of the Corral de Piedra, between Lake Guadalupe and the Rio Grande, was burned down. A large herd of horses and cattle were taken away. The ranchman, who was a Mexican, was killed. The bandits were seen in the vicinity of the town of El Paso, Texas, and that they were in the habit of robbing the trains.
